Who committed the alleged misconduct/wrongdoing?

Marlene Rita Machado

What are the facts?

From 3/8/2022 through present, a Non-native by the name of Marlene Rita Machado, who was/is trespassing on Indian Canyon Road and within Indian Canyon Ranch, had/has been illegally accessing, obstructing, and concealing incoming mail items sent to my Indian tribal community's rural mailbox located on Seneca Road, Hollister, CA 95024. See also civil action Sayers-Roods, et al. v. Machado, Case No. 5-22-cv-03092-EJD (USDC, CAND May 2022).

Where did the misconduct/wrongdoing occur?

The tort occurred at/within the Costanoan-Chualar Indian Tribal Community's rural mailbox located on Seneca Road, Hollister, CA 95024 near Indian Canyon Ranch on Indian Canyon Road. See also civil action Sayers-Roods, et al. v. Machado, Case No. 5-22-cv-03092-EJD (USDC, CAND May 2022).

How was the misconduct/wrongdoing committed?

Subject Machado went into Indian Canyon Road's rural mailbox and removed, collected, or stole postmarked mail items addressed to tribal members Ann-Marie Sayers (my mother), Christopher Sayers (my uncle), Kanyon Sayers-Roods (myself), or Costanoan Indian Research Inc. (our tribal organization), without Tribal Council or land trust holder's consent or authorization. NOTE: I a the Chairperson for the tribal council and Power-of-Attorney for Indian trust land holder Ann-Marie Sayers.

Do you have first-hand knowledge of the misconduct/wrongdoing?

Yes. She's been seen by myself and tribal staff coming and going to mailbox and the resident homes located Indian Canyon Road.

Where can we obtain additional information concerning the misconduct/wrongdoing?

This ongoing issue in controversy and interference with federal commerce with USPS follows a former issue wherein I was obliged to rekey a P.O. Box #28 (3/17/2022) that I was renting at the USPS branch office in Hollister, California. See also civil action Sayers-Roods, et al. v. Machado, Case No. 5-22-cv-03092-EJD (USDC, CAND May 2022), or contact tribal community's legal affairs director Cary Peterson at 831-531-0055 ext 23 (legal@costanoan.org).

Who else might be aware of the misconduct/wrongdoing?

The U.S. District Court, Bureau of Indian Affairs, California Attorney General (Indian Affairs Office), and the District Attorney for San Benito County, California.
